Try This for Catarrh

Get a HYOMEL (pronounce it High-ome) outfit to-day.
Pour a few drops from the bottle into the inhaler that comes with each outfit, and breathe it in four or five times a day.
Immediately you will know that HY-OMEL soothes and heals the inflamed and irritated membrane.

But HYOMEL does more than soothe and heal; it kills the germs, those persistent pests that are at the root of all catarrhal conditions.
"Last year I suffered terribly with catarrh. I used one bottle of HYOMEL, and my catarrh was better,"—Miss Helen McNair, Loyalton, Cal.

A complete HYOMEL outfit, including a bottle of HYOMEL, a hard rubber pocket inhaler and simple instructions for use, costs only $1.00. If you now own a Hyomel inhaler, you can get an extra bottle of HYOMEL for only 50 cents at the Red Cross Pharmacy and druggists everywhere.

Guaranteed to cure catarrh, croup, asthma and sore throat, or money back.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Sousa's Band at Barre Opera House
Friday, Nov. 18.

Sousa carries with him, in addition to the band, three prominent soloists, Miss Virginia Roth, soprano, Miss Nicolaie Zedler, violinist, and Mr. Herbert L.
Clarke, cornetist.

Miss Roth has the distinction of winning the scholarship prize from the Metropolitan Opera School of Music, Manhattan being the judge. She has a soprano voice of rare quality and had frequently given recitals in New England territory.

Miss Zedler is one of the rising young American violinists, and is to be compared with Maud Powell, etc. She studied in Germany under the direction of Theodore Spiering, concertmaster of the New York Philharmonic orchestra.

Mr. Clarke is well known through this territory, and everywhere he appears he creates the greatest enthusiasm.

On this trip Sousa will play for the first time his new suite, "Dwellers in the Western World." This describes very vividly the three great races of the continent: "The Black Man," "The Red Man," "The White Man." This suite was composed by Sousa within the last three months, and he feels that it is one of his greatest compositions, and that it will create great enthusiasm.

This past month Sousa has spent in Hot Springs, Va., resting before the strenuous trip before him, and has been preparing a great many novelties for his trip through New England, for it is a great pleasure to him to conduct concerts in this territory, and he always likes to give his choicest programs there.

At Barre opera house Friday evening, November 18.

NOW IN MONTPELIER MELTON

The Celebrated Clairvoyant and Palmist

And Can Be Consulted Daily
From 10 A. M. to 9 P. M.

At 6 BARRE ST.

Do you find the one you have bestowed your affections and trust upon acting cool and independent? Has a rival or obstacle of any kind crept between you and your future hope, or has the demon Rum assailed the quietude of your happy home? If so, come to this gifted medium and find help. I will guarantee to tell the names of your rivals, also tell you how to win your heart's desire quickly and overcome your rivals or obstacles existing between you and future happiness.

Are you in trouble? Do you find with all natural gifts and talents that you are baffled, discouraged and unsuccessful? If so, come and be advised.
Find out the cause of your bad luck and how you can change your bad conditions to those of success, joy and happiness.

Thousands live to-day to bless and give credit of their success and happiness to my wonderful help. I have others why not you? I never fail to cause speedy and happy marriages with the one of your choice, reunite the separated, locate absent friends and buried hidden treasures, give you luck to win your biggest wish, overcome bad luck and sorrow of all kinds, and it takes one but a very short time. In fact, I guarantee everything I claim and you pay nothing until you have received value in full.

Business Men, if you are perplexed over business matters or employ a law suit, come and see me. I am the only medium in this country who understands the secret of psychological work: when only a child it was revealed to me that I was endowed with this heavenly gift, and I have devoted my entire life to this secret work. There is no mystery so deep that I cannot fathom, heart so kind I cannot gladden, my predictions and psychological work can be implicitly relied upon.

Family Troubles. Why be wretched and grope in the dark? I will locate an absent child, wife or husband. I will tell you who is false to you, who is deceiving you and who is true. I have saved many a home almost ruined by middlemen neighbors. You don't have to tell me anything, for I will tell you all about it and never ask a question.

He stands alone in his unrivaled power to read the future of humankind.

Strangely fascinating are the words that come from the lips of this most interesting man, whose journey of life has taken him through all the renowned psychic schools of Egypt, India and Europe. It seems indeed as if his knowledge must come from that mysterious world of which we all would learn, yet longing, cannot know. He looks as far away into the dim, mysterious future, the great beyond—across the dark chasm which separates the human body from the fitting soul—and THAT WHICH IS TO BE is told—told with a clearness and precision that leaves no room for doubt. The innermost secrets of your life are laid bare to his mysterious perceptive mind, and while he gives names, dates, facts and figures, his visitor sits dumbfounded at the revelations that he makes.

Consult him to-day. To-morrow may be too late. Readings $50, $100. Hours, 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Place, 6 Barre street, Montpelier, Vt.

NOTICE.

About the State

Addison Kimball of Orwell has sold Mount Independence to Mr. Pell of New York, owner of the Fort Ticonderoga property.

Hunters in Poultney managed to shoot one of R. B. Thall's finest calves. The mother cow, which was near by, gave them a hard chase.

During October there were 57 commitments to the Rutland county jail. This was a decrease of nine, as compared with the month of October of last year.

Emery Ormsbee of Bolton was struck by a falling tree while lumbering on October 24. A deep gash was cut in the back of his head and he was otherwise bruised and injured.

As Mrs. H. T. Wood was returning from Middlebury to her home in Brandon Monday, she left her seat in the car before the train stopped and was thrown in such a way as to break a rib.

Three Mendon women have been successful in getting deer this season. Mrs.
Elbridge Williams got a 150-pound doe.
Mrs. Elton Briggs a large spoke-horned buck and Mrs. W. A. Young a 300-pound buck.

While laying sewer pipe in Brattleboro Tuesday, the ditch caved in and buried a man by the name of Beliveau to the chin in quicksand. When he was dug out, it was discovered that his only injury was a broken collar bone.

Arthur Sweeney of St. Albans was injured while hunting Wednesday, however is not yet known. He had an old Jordan Hall rifle and when he went to try it the breach lock of the gun blew off and the exploding shell struck him in the face.

William P. Worcester, aged 63 years, chief clerk of the United States public health and marine hospital service in Washington, who died at his home there recently, was a native of Vermont, and during the Civil war was a corporal of the 94th Illinois volunteers.

The annual meeting of the New England Fat Men's club will be held at Hale's tavern, in Wells River, Friday evening, December 16. President W. D.
Quimby of Boston has announced the program as yet, but it is expected several good speakers will be heard.

The barns and silo on Alex. Williams' farm in Kirby were burned Sunday morning. Mr. Williams went to the barn to feed the stock, hung the lantern up, went to the left and on looking back the lower floor was all ablaze. He was overcome by the smoke, but made his escape safely. Seventy-five hogs, a few sheep and two pigs, with the contents of the buildings, were consumed by the flames. The farm tools, wagons and horses were saved by hard work and at quite a risk.

QUESTIONS FOR RAILROADS.
A Long List Sent to Many by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, Nov. 4.—A long list of detailed questions for the railroads to answer on or before December 5 in connection with the investigation of the general increases in railroad rates has been forwarded by the interstate commerce commission to all railroads in the transmission, western trunk line, transmission and Illinois freight committee territories. Where the records of the companies do not contain the matters called for, the returns are required to be rendered as completely as possible, and the companies encountering this difficulty must appear before the commission on November 21 to explain why they are unable to make the full returns.

"MESSENGER BOY" A BRIDE.

Girl Who Masqueraded as Man Weds Fellow Employee.

Toledo, O., Nov. 4.—Miss Margaret Patrick, a 17-year-old Coshocton girl, arrested Wednesday after posing as a man in men's clothes the past three months, became the wife of W. F. Collier, 22, employed by the Bell Telephone company, with whom she had roomed for the past month.

Dressed as a boy and under the name of Robert Doyle, she got a job as messenger for the Bell Telephone company and later as a "news butcher" on the Lake Shore. She was arrested and later confessed. The girl's voice and manner aroused suspicion of the bag-gagemaster, who "guessed" the girl into a confession.

Will Promote Beauty
Women desiring beauty get wonderful help from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It banishes pimples, skin eruptions, sores and boils. It makes the skin soft and velvety. It glorifies the face. Cures sore eyes, cold sores, cracked lips, chapped hands. Best for burns, scalds, fever sores, cuts, bruises and piles. Use at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

How to Stop Drinking

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then—break it.
But now it is gradually dawning on the world that pledges do not stop drunkenness. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is diseased, and he must have treatment that will cure this condition. Orin is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the drink habit or the money will be refunded. Can be given secretly.

Write for free booklet on the cure of alcoholism to The Orin Co., 336 Orin building, Washington, D. C. Mailed, sealed. Orin costs but $1 per box.
Sold in this city by Burt H. Wells, 100 No. Main street.

Body Stealer.

Diabes, Ariz., Nov. 4.—Reports from Cananea, Sonora, Mexico, say that the body of former Governor Rafael Yzabel of Sonora was stolen Wednesday.
Governor Yzaebel died recently while returning from Europe and the body was buried last week at Hermosillo.
